The Marietta Daily Leader

THUPSDAY, JAN. II, 1900.

After a Franchise at Wheeling. In its report of Council proceedings the Wheeling Register of Jan. 10, has the following:

"In the First Branch the National Celephone Company introduced an ordinance, through Howard & Handlan, attorneys. The ordinance makes a rate of $30 per appum for residences and $40 for business houses provides for an underground system wherever the Bell Company may have one now, or where it may extend its present system in the future, and provides for a bond of $25,000 It was read by its title and referred." Editorially the same paper says:

The ordinance presented in Counell last night by the National Tele phone Company appears to have merit, inasmuch as the company agrees to do any and all things heretofore required or expected of the Bell company, and offers a bond of $25,000. The rates are low enough to be called reasonable and if the franchise is granted there MONDAY NIGHT, JAN. 15TH, will be a great resulting saving to the

The company has a number of very trong members who introduce in the course of the performance an agreerble lot of new ideas in the amuse ment line. One of the cleverest hitsand particularly good in this city right now was a take-off on Herrmann, the magician and his attendant, "Boomthe gentle "Boomski."

The musical team-The Brothers Deltorelli, introduced a bushel of novelties which were brimful of amusemen for the big audience.

The company as a whole is as clever as it is large in number, and the house was not in the least disappointed.
